During the late night of August 17, 2013, Deputies were dispatched to [REDACTED] approximately 2 miles north of Clarinda, Ia. for a burglary that had occurred sometime in the last two days. Deputies processed the scene.

During the investigation, fingerprints were recovered and turned over to the Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation for analysis. Deputies found that on Friday August 16, 2013, the female resident, [REDACTED] had discovered items missing from the porch. She did not notify Law Enforcement at this time. She did tell Law Enforcement during the investigation, on the late night of the 17th early morning of the 18th, that she became nervous about the items missing, secured the residence and placed the firearms in a gun cabinet, then left to stay with relatives.

When [REDACTED] and the other resident, [REDACTED] returned to the residence, they noticed that a handgun, clothes, ammunition, and other items were missing from the residence they notified Law Enforcement at this time, shortly after 9:45 PM.

On August 18, 2013, in the early morning hours, Deputies searched the area for anyone that might still be in the area. No persons were found. The gun was entered as stolen nationwide through the Clarinda Police Dispatch at approximately 7:00 AM on August 18, 2013.
